

Praise for Brooklyn Bones... As full of local color as a bagel with a schmear. -Rosemary Harris author of Dead Head Brooklyn native Erica Donato just wants to focus on her PhD research. But when her teenage daughter Chris finds a skeleton behind a wall in their crumbling Park Slope home, they are both touched and disturbed by the mysterious tragedy. Investigating, they return to her neighborhood in its edgy, pre-gentrification days, when the age of Aquarius was turning dark. A cranky retired reporter shares old files. The charming widow of a slumlord has some surprises. The crazy old lady who hangs around Ericas street keeps trying to tell her something.... Triss Stein has spent most of her adult life in New York City. Brooklyn Bones is the first in a new series about Brooklyn life, history, and crime. Triss is a member of Mystery Writers of America and Sisters in Crime.
