

Does God still interact with humans today? Do miracles still happen? Can Christians tap into the supernatural realm? “If God were to show up in my life, what would He say?” “Why do so many bad things happen?” “Does God care about me as a person? Or is He too busy running the universe?” “Is heaven like a big resort with carnivals and fun things to do?” David Hobbs (Author of Out of the Fire, A Life Radically Changed) came across the surprising answers to these and many other questions in his journey which began as a stubborn attempt to discover God’s purpose for his life and took him into the very heart of God Himself. Along the way he learned: 1. How Christianity is supposed to work 2. What is the “treasure hidden in the field?” (Matt. 13:44) [Maybe not what you think!] 3. What is God’s reward for those who diligently seek Him? 4. What God sees as His greatest accomplishment for time and eternity (this will surprise you!), and many more. But beyond all this, he developed a relationship with God that became his own greatest treasure and provoked his great-est desire: that others might lay hold of this same “Promised Land” in God that satisfies the deepest longings and provides the greatest challenge to any person willing to learn to Walk in the Spirit.
