

Love Is a Many Splendid Thing

This book is about love, strength and coping with challenges. Life presents many challenges whether it is through a marital union, work, family, neighbors, church, etc. As we take our place in this life, we must prepare ourselves for what might come our way. However, if we are not prepared, we must learn to cope with what is presented. Through my marital union, I learned the strength of true love. As a child growing up in the 1940s, I learned to cope with the racial disparities and prejudices against black people.
