

An inspiring tale of a horse that beat the odds. Reminiscent of the inspiring, against-the-odds success story that made Seabiscuit a bestseller, The Eighty-Dollar Champion tells the dramatic odyssey of a horse called Snowman that, saved from the slaughterhouse, went on to become Americas leading show jumper, winning first prize at Madison Square Garden. Set in the mid-to late 1950s, this book captures the can-do spirit of a Cold War immigrant who believed--and triumphed.
